TUCSS Tunnel Course 2021

Dr. Angus Maxwell, CEO and founder of Maxwell GeoSystems is pleased to be contributing to the TUCSS Tunnel Course 2021 in Singapore on the 21st of April, and will be giving a talk on the recent advancements in instrumentation monitoring and presentation of results.

The event aims to provide comprehensive background to certain contemporary practices in design and construction of tunnels and underground structures.

The course is delivered by practitioners from the industry with many years of experience. For more information about the course, please visit <https://www.tucss.org.sg/eventDetail/174>.
