Digital Construction Virtual Event

On-Demand Video - Digitalisation: The Good, The Bad, The Ugly

Last month, Dr. Angus Maxwell, CEO and founder of Maxwell GeoSystems gave a talk on “Digitalisation: The Good, The Bad, The Ugly” at the Digital Construction: The Elephant in the Room virtual event. It was well received by the audience, with Dr. Angus touching upon hard-pressing issues related to digitalisation in the construction industry.

The event, first of its kind hosted by Tunnelling Journal had over 300 registrations, with leading industry professionals presenting thought provoking sessions from the world of digital construction, along with having a live Q&A and a panel discussion.
