Finalists for ITA Tunnelling Awards 2021

Maxwell GeoSystems is delighted to have been shortlisted for yet another award, “Technical Innovation of the Year” at the ITA Tunnelling and Underground Space awards 2021.

The project chosen for the submission was the implementation of STEMS (Shaft and Tunnel Excavation Monitoring System) in PUB’s (Public Utilities Board) DTSS2 Project (Deep Tunnel Sewerage System) in Singapore.

The bespoke MissionOS platform is forging ahead in the construction technology (ConTech) industry, helping global projects capture and visualise hundreds of thousands of data points.
