Maxwell GeoSystems India Onam Celebrations 2021

Spirits and celebration were high over the weekend, as Maxwell GeoSystems' India staff celebrated the festival of Onam. Although celebrations could not take place in the office, colleagues shared their moments online with others, celebrating with family and friends.

Onam is an annual harvest festival that is celebrated in the Indian state of Kerala to remember King Mahabali. The festival brings about colourful designs of Pookalam (Flower Rangoli), music and dancing, along with many other festivities.

Maxwell GeoSystems would like to wish each and everyone a very Happy Onam.
