Ground Engineering – Instrumentation & Monitoring 2019

We're looking forward to attending the ninth Ground Engineering - Instrumentation & Monitoring conference on Tuesday 26th March 2019 in London, United Kingdom.

This is an essential gathering for anyone involved in monitoring and looking for an up-to-date insight into projects, technologies and techniques.

Dr Angus Maxwell BSc, PhD, CGeol, FGS, is CEO and founding Director of the Maxwell GeoSystems Group. He will be attending the event together with Guy Morgan, Business Sales Manager - UK & Europe at Maxwell GeoSystems.

As a conference speaker, Dr Maxwell will give a keynote presentation about using cloud computing to improve infrastructure value.

The forum will also allow opportunity to demonstrate the powerful MissionOS system and its innovative & highly configurable capabilities, which are proving to be such revolutionary game-changers to instrumentation and monitoring fields.

Maxwell GeoSystems is a Silver Sponsor of the GE I&M Conference.

We look forward to seeing you there...
